

Tidal Energy Workshop

Hosted by: New Hampshire Coastal Program & New Hampshire Office of Energy and Planning

February 23, 2007

10 A.M. – 3 P.M.

AGENDA

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 10:00 a.m. | Introductions |
| 10:05 a.m. | Why Are We Here? Thoughts on Coastal and Energy Policy in New Hampshire , Ted Diers - New Hampshire Coastal Program Manager, Amy Ignatius - Director, New Hampshire Office of Energy and Planning |
| 10:20 a.m. | Tidal Energy: The State of the Technology , Jack Pare |
| 11:00 a.m. | Proposed Tidal Energy Legislation , Thomas Fargo - New Hampshire House Representative |
| 11:10 a.m. | The Piscataqua River: Its Many Uses , Geno Marconi - Director, Division of Ports and Harbors, Pease Development Authority |
| 11:40 a.m. | The Marine Resources of the Piscataqua River , Bruce Smith - New Hampshire Fish & Game Department |
| 12:10 p.m. | Lunch , Provided |
| 1:00 p.m. | The Federal Regulatory Process for Reviewing and Permitting Tidal Energy Projects , Christopher Yeakel - Federal Energy Regulatory Commission |
| 1:30 p.m. | Siting of Energy Facilities in New Hampshire , Tim Drew - Administrator, New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services Public Information & Permitting Unit |
| 2:00 p.m. | Discussion , Facilitated by Cliff Sinnott - Executive Director, Rockingham Planning Commission |
| 3:00 p.m. | Adjourn |